

IBISWorld is an online database offering a wealth of powerful and comprehensive information on industries, companies and the business environment in Australia, as well as industry reports covering New Zealand, the USA, the UK, China, and more broadly on a global scale.

Getting Started (on campus or off campus)

Access to the Learning Resource Centre's electronic resources is available via the LRC homepage <http://library.angliss.edu.au/> - 'Find Information' link.

To search IBISWorld, select 'Databases', then click the icon.

The different modules of the database are explored overleaf: -

Industry Reports

Each industry report provides comprehensive, current analysis, covering market characteristics, current and historical performance, industry outlook, SWOT analysis, major industry participants, key statistics and more. Reports are usually updated two to three times a year.

Specialised Industry Reports

Reports covering emerging, niche or smaller industries, following the same format as the other industry reports.

Australian SME Industry Reports

Operating conditions for small-to-medium enterprises (SMEs) can vary considerably to non-SMEs. SMEs are considered businesses that generate revenue of ten million dollars or less. .

Australian Industry Lists

Pre-defined lists of selected data from the 500 ANZIC industry classifications, that can be downloaded to an Excel Spreadsheet, e.g. Top 50 Growth Industries.

Australian Risk Ratings Reports

Risk Ratings analyses determine how much risk an industry will face over the following 18 months by assessing the operating conditions; industry structure, revenue outlook and key drivers. The risk rating is a numerical score supported by the detailed analysis

Australian Business Environment Profiles

Every industry faces a set of drivers outside its control that have a material effect on industry performance. Business Environment Profiles provide insight into these key drivers, including exchange rates, interest rates, commodity prices, weather conditions, consumer attitudes and consumer demographics.

Australian iExpert Summaries

Industry and Risk iExpert Summaries condense the integral elements from industry reports highlighting the key issues, with questions and answers for consideration for each of the 500 ANZSIC industries.

Australian Company Reports

Company Reports analyse the 2000 largest Australian and New Zealand companies; listed & non-listed public, private, foreign owned, trusts & government businesses. Each profile contains details of key personnel, company financials, industry and product focus, ownership structure as well as the auditors, bankers and solicitors of the company where available.

Australian Company Wizard and Company Lists

Download and analyse the top companies in predefined categories, including revenue, industry sector and shareholders.

UK Brexit Impact Statements

Provide an overview of the impact on industry of the UK referendum to exit the European Union. Also included as part of 'UK Industry Reports'.

Australia COVID-19 Impact Tool

To assist with decision making during the current crisis, IBISWorld created a tool to help understand different industries' levels of vulnerability to different exposure factors, also considering the level of restrictions in place.
