Results screen

Once you have conducted your search, your search results will appear in the centre of the screen. Clicking the link within an article title, will take you to more information about the article (article display).

You can further filter your results, by Publication (Journal title), Publication date or you can modify your original search.

Results can also be limited to only content subscribed to by WAI—articles in full text ('Only show content I have full access to'), or only Open Access content.

Otherwise, full-text results can be identified by the green tick symbol within a result.

Article Display

Within an article display, you can view the abstract, full-text, the article's list of references, a list of other articles who have cited the article (Citations), the full-text as a downloadable PDF, and a list of related articles of interest.

Download Citation (EndNote)

Article information can be downloaded and exported into EndNote.
